Editor's Report

Hope all our members are well & finding a new 'normal'!

2020 has certainly thrown lots of challenges at all of us & has definitely tested our resilience & our ability to adapt! Whilst COVID-19 has forced change in our habits, work practices & also our social activities, it has also forced a fairly sharp learning curve in a number of areas! I can also see positives though, & I hope everyone has been able to slow down & appreciate 'the little things'! Again – I hope everyone is well & looking after themselves & each other!

Winter Merchandise Available Now!

WELCOME TO WINTER!!

I thought it would be a good time to promote some of the CCHS merchandise to help keep you warm! New into stock are beanies! Nothing like a super warm beanie to keep the chills away!

Beanies come in Navy Blue or Black

As most of you will know, shows & events for the foreseeable future have been cancelled. It is still unclear as to how long it will be before show can resume – so for now, we all 'stay tuned' & wait for updates & announcements.

Thank you to all members for your support & input to SFTHM throughout 2019. Now more than ever, I really need to hear from our members as to what you would like to see included in SFTHM. Any ideas or topics that you have will give me the opportunity to ensure our newsletter is providing information that is being looked for by our members. The more you send in – the more interesting & relevant our newsletters are – so 'Thank You' & keep it coming!

Take care!

Vic Branch Committee Goes Online! ZOOM Meetings!

COVID-19 is forcing us all to learn new skills! The Victorian Branch Committee held a Trial Committee Meeting over Zoom recently to see if this would be a viable option. From all reports – (with the exception of a few hiccups!) all went fairly well. It is something the Committee may be forced to utilise more in the coming months.

NEXT COMMITTEE MEETING – 3 July 2020

'Thank You' Louise Beer for Sending this Through

"THE ANZAC ON THE WALL"

By Jim Brown

I wandered thru a country town, 'cos I had some time to spare,
And went into an antique shop to see what was in there.
Old Bikes and pumps and kero lamps, but hidden by it all,
A photo of a soldier boy – an Anzac on the Wall.

'The Anzac have a name?' I asked. The old man answered 'No'. The ones who could have told me mate, have passed-on long ago.

The old man kept on talking and, according to his tale, The photo was unwanted junk bought from a clearance sale.

'I asked around', the old man said, 'but no-one knows his face,
He's been on that wall twenty years... Deserves a better place.
For someone must have loved him, so it seems a shame somehow.'
I nodded in agreement and then said, 'I'll take him now.'

My nameless digger's photo, well it was a sorry sight
A cracked glass pane and a broken frame - I had to make it right
To prise the photo from its frame I took care just in case,
Cause only sticky paper held the cardboard back in place.

I peeled away the faded screed and much to my surprise,
Two letters and a telegram appeared before my eyes.
The first reveals my Anzac's name, and regiment of course,
John Mathew Francis Stuart - of Australia's own Light Horse.

This letter written from the front... My interest now was keen,
This note was dated August seventh 1917.
'Dear Mum, I'm at Khalasa Springs not far from the Red Sea,
They say it's in the Bible - looks like a Billabong to me.

'My Kathy wrote I'm in her prayers... she's still my bride to be, I just can't wait to see you both, you're all the world to me. And Mum you'll soon meet Bluey, last month they shipped him out, I told him to call on you when he's up and about.'

'That Bluey is a larrikin, and we all thought it funny,
He lobbed a Turkish hand grenade into the CO's dunny.
I told you how he dragged me wounded, in from no man's land,
He stopped the bleeding, closed the wound, with only his bare hand.'

'Then he copped it at the front from some stray shrapnel blast,
It was my turn to drag him in and I thought he wouldn't last.
He woke up in hospital, and nearly lost his mind,
Cause out there on the battlefield he'd left one leg behind.'

'He's been in a bad way Mum, he knows he'll ride no more,
Like me he loves a horse's back, he was a champ before.
So Please Mum can you take him in, he's been like my own brother,
Raised in a Queensland orphanage he's never known a mother.'

But struth, I miss Australia Mum, and in my mind each day,
I am a mountain cattleman on high plains far away.
I'm mustering white-faced cattle, with no camel's hump in sight,
And I waltz my Matilda by a campfire every night.

I wonder who rides Billy, I heard the pub burnt down,
I'll always love you and please say, 'hooroo' to all in town.
The second letter I could see, was in a lady's hand,
An answer to her soldier son there in a foreign land.

Her copperplate was perfect, the pages neat and clean,
It bore the date, November 3rd 1917.
'T'was hard enough to lose your Dad, without you at the war,
I'd hoped you would be home by now - each day I miss you more.'

Your Kathy calls around a lot since you have been away,
To share with me her hopes and dreams about your wedding day.
And Bluey has arrived - and what a godsend he has been,

We talked and laughed for days about the things you've done and seen.'

'He really is a comfort, and works hard around the farm, I read the same hope in his eyes that you won't come to harm. McConnell's kids rode Billy, but suddenly that changed, We had a violent lightning storm, and it was really strange.'

'Last Wednesday, just on midnight, not a single cloud in sight, It raged for several minutes, it gave us all a fright. It really spooked your Billy - and he screamed and bucked and reared, And then he rushed the sliprail fence, which by a foot he cleared.'

'They brought him back next afternoon, but something's changed I fear, It's like the day you brought him home, for no one can get near. Remember when you caught him with his black and flowing mane? Now Horse breakers fear the beast that only you can tame.'

'That's why we need you home son' - then the flow of ink went dry, This letter was unfinished, and I couldn't work out why. Until I started reading, the letter number three, A yellow telegram delivered news of tragedy.

Her son killed in action - oh - what pain that must have been, The same date as her letter - 3rd November 1917. This letter which was never sent, became then one of three, She sealed behind the photo's face - the face she longed to see.

And John's home town's old timers - children when he went to war, Would say no greater cattleman had left the town before. They knew his widowed mother well - and with respect did tell, How when she lost her only boy, she lost her mind as well.

She could not face the awful truth, to strangers she would speak, 'My Johnny's at the war you know, he's coming home next week.' They all remembered Bluey he stayed on to the end, A younger man with wooden leg became her closest friend.

And he would go and find her when she wandered old and weak, And always softly say 'yes dear - John will be home next week.' Then when she died Bluey moved on, to Queensland some did say, I tried to find out where he went, but don't know to this day.

And Kathy never wed - a lonely spinster some found odd, She wouldn't set foot in a church - she'd turned her back on God.

John's mother left no Will I learned on my detective trail, This explains my photo's journey, of that clearance sale.

So I continued digging, cause I wanted to know more, I found John's name with thousands, in the records of the war. His last ride proved his courage - a ride you will acclaim, The Light Horse Charge at Beersheba of everlasting fame.

That last day in October, back in 1917, At 4pm our brave boys fell - that sad fact I did glean. That's when John's life was sacrificed, the record's crystal clear, But 4pm in Beersheba is midnight over here.....

So as John's gallant spirit rose to cross the great divide, Were lightning bolts back home, a signal from the other side? Is that why Billy bolted and went racing as in pain? Because he'd never feel his master on his back again?

Was it coincidental? same time - same day - same date? Some proof of numerology, or just a quirk of fate? I think it's more than that you know, as I've heard wiser men, Acknowledge there are many things that go beyond our ken.

Where craggy peaks guard secrets 'neath dark skies torn asunder, Where hoof-beats are companions to the rolling waves of thunder. Where lightning cracks like 303's and ricochets again, Where howling moaning gusts of wind sound just like dying men.

Some Mountain cattlemen have sworn on lonely alpine track, They've glimpsed a huge black stallion - Light Horseman on his back. Yes, sceptics say, it's swirling clouds just forming apparitions, Oh no, my friend, you can't dismiss all this as superstition.

The desert of Beersheba - or windswept Aussie range, John Stuart rides on forever there - Now I don't find that strange. Now some gaze upon this photo, and they often question me, And I tell them a small white lie, and say he's family.

'You must be proud of him.' they say - I tell them, one and all, That's why he takes - the pride of place - my Anzac on the Wall.

#TBT - 100 years ago, combine teams often consisted of up to 37 horses to pull each combine. The lead horse did not have reins, but could be turned when needed by a verbal command of the driver. This horse was very valuable and could be sold for $5000 (approximately $66,230 in 2020!)

The harvest horse teams on the Jennings farm pose for a photo on the rolling hills south of Pullman, Washington, 1920.
